

Hiring Students

For up to date information please visit the Student Employment myLynn page!

Gone are student change forms, new hire paper forms and Time Force. In this section you will find instructions on how to use Workday to complete the student hiring process.

There are three different categories of on-campus student employment at Lynn University.

Paid Student Worker

- Paid student workers are funded by department budget
- Available for all eligible undergraduate and graduate students
- Work up to a maximum of 20 hours per week

Federal Work Study

- Available for U.S. students only with financial need (based on FAFSA)
- Award is determined by Student Financial Services
- Awards range from $500 - $2,000
- All awards are subject to change
- Federal work study students may be hired as paid student workers after award is exhausted

Graduate Assistants

- Graduate assistants are funded by department budget
- Available for graduate level students only
- Limited number of positions
