

Business Applications & Enterprise Software

Description

Business applications and Enterprise Software that provide tools to perform business-oriented functions such as order processing, procurement, customer information management, document imaging, etc.

Students

Access to web portals is granted to students upon reaching deposit/accepted stage in admissions.

All other enterprise business applications are available to Lynn employed students per hiring manager request only.

Faculty and Staff

Business applications are available to staff per position and/or hiring manager request.

Related Pages